MATTHEW WHITE.

Democratic County Convention Tuesday Afternoon, A Close Contest.

The Democratic county convention to nominate a county treasurer was held last Tuesday afternoon, May 31, at 2:00 P. M. The convention was called to order by Mr. J. H. Eckels, who stated that in the absence of the chairman that duty had devolved upon him. Mr. Eckels made a few brief and pointed remarks, read the call for the meeting and called for nominations for chairman pro tem.

Mr. Michael O'Laughlin, of Brookfield, was nominated and elected. Mr. Eckels then appointed a committee of two to escort Mr. O'Laughlin to the chair, and upon being presented to that gentleman on the stage, introduced him to the convention and retired.

Mr. O'Laughlin briefly thanked the convention for the honor conferred, and called for nominations for secretary pro tem. Mr. J. J. Carey of Earlville was elected secretary and was able to reach the stage without any assistance. The chairman then suggested that there would be need of two secretaries, and asked that an assistant secretary pro tem be nominated. This was done. Mr. William Trubing Jr., was elected assistant secretary. A committee of three on credentials was then appointed by the chairman on motion of J. J. Sweeney, and consisted of Messrs. J. Sweeney of La Salle; V. B. Weeks, of Ottawa; and Alex. Vaughney, of Manly. A motion was then carried to call the roll of the towns, and have the chairman of each delegation answer. The committee adjourned to the small room at the rear of the gallery, to prepare a list of delegates entitled to vote.

While the committee was out, the chair read the resignation of Mr. James H. Eckels, secretary of the county central committee. A motion was made to lay Mr. Eckels' resignation on the table, but that gentleman arose and insisted. He said that while a member of the committee he had given more time and more means to the party's interest than he could well afford. He had served upon the committee to the best of his ability, but he did not feel equal to the labor of the coming presidential campaign, and must insist upon his resignation. The gentleman who made the table motion then withdrew and Mr. Eckels' resignation was accepted, and Mr. John G. Armstrong elected to his place. A vote of thanks was then tendered to Mr. Eckels by the convention for his long and efficient service upon the committee. The convention then took a recess to allow time for the credentials committee to prepare their report.

After a long and very tedious delay the committee announced their readiness, and the chair called the convention to order at a little before four. The list of delegates was read by the chairman of the committee. There was some contest in regard to the delegates from Otter Creek, but the committee announced that Wm. Reddick and James Mulbury had right to seats in the convention. The report of the committee was concurred in, and accepted in full. The temporary organization was then made permanent. The motion was made and put by Mr. Geo. H. Haight of Ottawa. A motion was then made to the effect that the convention empower delegations to elect in numbers to cast the full vote to which their respective towns were entitled. An amendment was made to allow the town of Fall River to vote by any gentleman present from that town. The chair put the amendment and the motion on one, and the whole thing was lost.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of a county treasurer. Charles Hoffman of Eden was the first name presented. Then John C. Campbell of Bruce arose and in an able speech nominated John C. McKeon. Mr. Campbell's remarks were good, practical common sense, and were heartily applauded. Mr. Haskins of La Salle also spoke in favor of Mr. McKeon. Dr. Norton of Earlville likewise lent his voice to the support of the courteous young gentleman from Streator.

Geo. W. W. Blake then arose and turned himself loose. Mr. Blake is a good speaker anyway, and when he got to talking about the many fine qualities of Matthew White he grew eloquent. The name of Mr. White was greeted with cheers, the same as that of Mr. McKeon had been. Mr. J. J. Conway spoke at some length in Mr. White's support.

Hon. E. Vaughney of Seneca then arose and made the strongest and perhaps the most influential speech of the convention. He hit Mr. McKeon pretty hard, and supported Mr. White in round terms. A motion was then made to allow Mr. John Bordig Jr., to vote for Fall River. A motion to table was lost, and the motion was before the house, and there was then a mass. Three or four delegates rose to points of order, and there was music in the air. There was a motion to reconsider, and one to appeal, and the chair, though evidently posted in parliamentary, was not quick enough for all of these motions and he got muddled. Then while at least six motions were before the house, somebody moved to proceed with an informal ballot for county treasurer. The motion was opportune, was put and carried, and had the most happy effect of squelching all the parliamentary muddle. The informal vote as called by townships resulted as follows: McKeon 86, White 87, Hoffman 11. The first formal ballot resulted, McKeon 92, White 88, Hoffman 4. The second formal ballot resulted, McKeon 87, White 94, Hoffman 3. As the result of the last ballot was announced the convention lifted up its voice as the thunder of many waters and howled. Some of Mr. McKeon's friends moved to make the nomination of Mr. White unanimous, and the meeting arose and went out, hurrahing for the solid democracy of La Salle county.

WRIGHT ADAMS.

Republican Convention, Thursday, Six Candidates. Very Lamb-like.

The Republican County Convention was called to order by Col. T. C. Fullerton, chairman of the county central committee, at ten minutes of 2 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, at Turn Hall. The secretary of the county committee, Mr. Clarence Griggs, read the call. Mr. Walter Reeves of Streator, was elected temporary chairman of the convention. He was escorted to the chair by a committee of two, and got off the usual chestnut about being grateful for the honor, etc. He wanted the finances of the county in the hands of a republican. He didn't want to cast the slightest reflection upon the dead, (O, no!) but he wanted the office in the hands of a man who was above suspicion, and that man must (of course) be a republican. Presently he paused and called for nominations for secretaries pro tem. Mr. C. A. Blake of Mendota, and Mr. C. S. Ellsworth of Deer Park, were elected secretaries pro tem.

On motion of E. F. Bull, a committee of five was appointed on credentials. This committee consisted of Dr. J. Corbus of La Salle, E. A. Nattinger of Ottawa, J. A. Lamberton of Mendota, Delos Robinson of Mission, and Joseph Hannah of Grand Rapids. A motion was put and carried to have the clerk call the counties and the chairman of each delegation respond. The convention took a recess by mutual consent, till the committee could examine the delegates' credentials and report. After a delay of about half an hour the committee reported, and the chairman of the committee read the list of delegates. The report was corrected by giving the town of Brookfield two delegates and Dimick one vote. On motion of E. F. Bull the delegations present were authorized and instructed to cast the full vote of the towns from which they were sent. Nominations were then in order.

Mr. A. Means of Peru, made the first nomination speech. His candidate was Mr. Birkenbush of Peru, whom he eulogized very eloquently.

Mr. Robinson of Mission, then arose to nominate Mr. Wright Adams. Mr. Robinson said whoever the convention might nominate would have his hearty support, but he wanted Mr. Adams nominated by the convention. Mr. Corbus of La Salle, was the next to tell the convention that he would work for any gentleman the convention might nominate, or he thought Mr. C. Webster might do, or, he didn't care very much if they nominated Mr. Wilcox. Mr. Corbus' speech was a good deal of a guess, and was a great waste of wind. He wasn't cut out for a speaker.

Mr. Hight of Utica, then arose and said he would vote for any gentleman the convention would place in nomination, but he wanted to name a man who, well, he wound up by mentioning Mr. John E. Muir. Farm Ridge then got on to its feet in the person of Mr. Percival, and nominated J. M. Dunaway. There were thus six candidates in the field, and everybody willing to work for anybody else, which was, as will be seen, a very happy state of affairs.

The convention then proceeded to an informal ballot for county treasurer. The towns were called by the secretary, and the chairman of each delegation answered for their towns. The informal ballot resulted as follows:

Birkenbush	16
Adams	77
Webster	6
Wilcox	6
Muir	19
Dunaway	54

The first formal ballot nominated Mr. Adams by the following vote:

Birkenbush	20
Muir	0
Dunaway	40

The convention adjourned.

From Grand Rapids.

The members of the S. P. R. C. club gave Miss Emily Moss a pleasant surprise, May 20th, in honor of her 18th birthday. Miss Grace Dickerman and Miss Maggie Porter were responsible for the repast, which consisted of ice cream, cake and lemonade. The grounds were lighted with Japanese lanterns. Music and games were indulged in until a late hour, when all departed for their respective homes, carrying with them a remembrance of a happy time not soon to be forgotten.

A. Porter and Steve Wilson attended the commencement exercises at the Normal in Geneseo, and reported a very pleasant time.

Lieut. H. C. Dickerman, and the energetic director, Wm. A. Dickerman, and Capt. VanBuren, have all had very pretty windmills erected by Wm. Pyle, whose workmanship is equal to his jokes.

Miss Anna Moss, who has been attending school in Nebraska for the past year, spent Saturday and Sunday with her uncle, E. F. Moss.

Mr. Charles Schmitt gave the boys a dance last Saturday night.

Mr. Richard Nagle has purchased a windmill, which will soon be erected.

A number of the girls in this vicinity are taking music lessons of Prof. Lavey.

The Rev. Mr. Morrish, of the Grand Ridge C. P. church, is very much liked by his congregation. His "Decorations" sermon on Sunday last was excellent, and showed careful preparation.

A few young people contemplate attending school at Geneseo, Ill., next fall and winter.

We are anxiously awaiting the revival meetings which are soon to be held for a week in Eichenberger's grove.

Oxford and Prairie Grove intend holding a school picnic, July 1st.

The slight showers of the past two weeks have been very beneficial to the crops and fruit.

Prairie Queen school has an average of 25 pupils a day.

Charles Woodard and sister Alice attended the High school commencement.

M. D.

From Troy Grove.

Slight showers fell almost every day for the past week. None of them were soaking, so to speak, still they have done lots of good.

Strawberries are a huge crop—not as large as usual, but just as sweet.

Our crop of school marmos was so large this spring that only one out of five could get a school. Way in bloom don't they undertake to teach one pupil?

John Snider while in town on business Monday, had his team tied before one of our business houses. The hitching strap being a poor one, the team got away and, and badly dilapidated the wagon. Still John smiles and doesn't fret.

Mr. P. O'Connor, 363 Rush st., Chicago, is in town. He intends to stay all summer.

Henry Smith is busy putting up a hay barn.

Dewey's dance was a large one—over 75 couples took part.

Ophir will soon import a few of those Waltham and Wallace duds, alas, judges, so that our girls can take care of them during the coming cold snap.

The Troy Grove A. F. & A. M. have remodeled their hall.

Decorations day was well observed here. At the Ridge cemetery at 10 o'clock, at Dimick cemetery at 1 o'clock, and at Troy Grove at 3 o'clock. A large crowd gathered in the Baptist church to take part with the old veterans to show their respect for their dead friends and comrades.

The exercises were opened by Rev. Saylor, followed by Mr. Calloun. These two gentlemen gave the hardships of soldier life, etc. Mr. Dewey being called on for a speech, gave, in a hearty, happy strain, the jolly side of camp life. Mr. Dewey kept the crowd laughing during his discourse. The procession then formed and, preceded by the band, took up their march to the cemetery, where flowers in plenty were spread. Below I will give a list of the dead Troy Grove boys. Fourteen sleep here and 11 in the Sunny South. Those buried here are: J. F. Barkley, S. W. Edwards, William Baker, H. Hoffman, E. Higgins, Joe Shepherd, Jno Simpson, J. Teed, E. Kleinletter, F. Foster, E. W. Dewey, R. Kaupp, William Baukas, H. McGlarren. Those buried away from here are: H. Houtze, D. Harris, N. Coss, M. Maddox, T. Newell, H. Dunlop, A. Lynn, C. Melnhart, W. Potts, A. J. Gilbert, D. R. Ryersonson.

From Wallace.

WALLACE, May 30th, 1887.—Crops are doing very well since the last rain. Corn is fully two weeks ahead of last year at this time.

Mr. Geo. Gahan is down with typhoid pneumonia.

Marry Pillion who has been in Chicago the past week under the care of a doctor, returned home last Saturday as able to work as well as ever. Before she left she could not walk a step, the doctor called it sciatitis.

Will Jamison is seen in this town once a week regular with his Percheron Norman coach horse. The outfit that will carry on his sulkey would supply the establishment of Degen Bros. He has a fine horse.

Jno. Hinkley last week lost a mare worth $500, and her foot valued at $200, sired by Confiant.

Wm. Butler owns one of the finest thoroughbred two year old stallions in La Salle Co. The colt is a beauty, possessing all the marks of speed and is the picture of his illustrious sire Intruder. As this colt's dam has four crosses of the most prominent thoroughbred blood in her. No doubt, with a little training the colt will rank in the list with other trotters of Intruder's gate. Buck Creek should feel proud of this colt and I think they do. Mr. Butler says he would not give him for all the norms in France, and he refused $800 for him.

The side bar fever has made its appearance again this year in Wallace, Johnnie Robbins, Jas. Begley and Jas. O'Donnell have each purchased new buggies, and are now conspicuous. Hon. T. Corcoran has ordered a new side bar; he would have purchased it with the rest of the boys but there was nothing in Ottawa to suit his royal taste so his fever remains broken. Tom says the buggy will have three springs. Look out girls, of Ophir.

Tom O'Donnell, Willie Kiley and Pat Fennessy were before his honor, the Waltham Judge last Sunday. All were discharged with a severe reprimand not to commit the offense again, with the exception of Pat, who was given twelve hours in solitary confinement at the Judge's dwelling. As it was raining, Pat didn't care so much anyhow, he says.

Your Ophir correspondent in last week's items says he thinks they will have to import a judge from Wallace or Waltham, as Wallace has got only one and Waltham the same. I think neither town could get along with any less. Steve Cranly says one judge is enough for Ophir at present.

J. McGrath, of Chicago, was visiting his father and relations last week.

James Crawley, of Waltham, was the guest of Miss Blanchfield quite recently.

Tommy Thompson and Frankie Thorn make their usual trips northwest. It will soon be here.

F. J. Donlevy has turned a new leaf and was the guest of the Waltham belle one day last week.

WALLACE, June 2.—Geo. Gahan, James O'Donnell, Wm. Connelly and Marion McGinness are on the sick list. It is hoped their recovery will be speedy.

Dan Connors has made the addition of a fast team to his top buggy.

Tom Fox and Will Madden have wholly recovered from the measles.

The law suit of Dobbins vs. Burke, which has gone through all the lower courts, was decided in the Appellate Court last week in favor of Burke, and now Dobbins has concluded that at law Burke of Wallace is a hard man to handle.

Mr. Thompson has the sympathy of the whole community in the loss of his spotted steer.

Thos. Fogarty has applied for a patent on his hammock through his attorney, J. J. Conway.

There is evidence that all the concentrated essence of wickedness and nastiness is confined to our town. Last Thursday evening, while some of our boys were coming home from town, a lively fracas took place, which leads me to suggest that it would be a button-hole bouquet for some of our Wallace boys if he would give the young pugilist, who acted as leader, the medicine he has long been aching for.

Watkins & Lowe are repairing their shaft at their coal mine at Marselles.

Leland is preparing for a Fourth of July celebration. As much as $100 have been raised. The cele. will be a boomer!

The boiler at Arthur's tile factory at Marselles "blew up" the other day.

From Ophir.

Ophir, May 29.—Decorations day was celebrated at Triumph. In attendance were the Prairie Center choir and the Homer and Triumph brass bands, which sang and played most magnificently. Prayers were offered, poems read and eulogies pronounced over the brave men who died in their country's service. The graves in the cemetery were most prodigally covered with flowers.

At Prairie Center, May 30th, Decorations day was also celebrated with most excellent singing and music by the Triumph and Prairie Center bands, and the cemetery was most prodigally covered with flowers in honor to the dead heroes of the war gives one a great joy.

R. N. Nood and wife, of Mendota, were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. F. F. Lawrence, a few days the past week.

Prospects are growing very encouraging for one, if not two, weddings in this vicinity soon. Now is the time for Dame Rumor to get in her work.

Dannie Gallagher, of DeKalb, was the guest of the Misses Hughes last Sunday evening.

The young pedagogues of this vicinity are catching the moustache fever one by one.

John Garland and best girl, while going to celebrate Decorations day at Triumph met with quite a serious accident. While crossing the creek his horse took fright, upsetting the cart. John says that though they got most awfully wet they didn't—melt.

Mr. Dewey has added to his place of residence one of the finest barns in this vicinity without an exception. He gave a dancing party on last Friday evening which was a complete success. There were ninety couples present and all report a good time. Music by the Meriden string band.

John Brady sports a brand new side bar buggy after Duke, his fine pet mule. John says Duke is so gentle he can drive him with one hand while the other—

G. W. Jones is our next mail carrier, successor to P. C. Landers.

SERENA.—P. F. Duffy and Miss Dunn, of Seneca, were the guests of Mrs. Fogarty of Wallace last Sunday. "P. F." seems to keep the road cart well exercised in Ophir, though "Charles" is said not to think the cart need so much of it in that direction.
